

James Nash State High School Transition into High School Update

James Nash State High School is pleased to issue the following invitations to Year 6 students who have enrolled and been accepted into the school for 2019.

Invitation to our Transition Morning
Tuesday 20 November at James Nash
9.30am—1.30pm

Enrolled students are invited to come to James Nash on this morning. Either parents/carers drop students off or students may decide to practice catching the bus. Parents / Carers are welcome to stay for the beginning and we will answer questions and do a tour of the school if required. We will have seniors to collect students either from the front gates or the bus stop and take them to J block. The morning will include the following:

- A tour of the school (for parents/carers as well)
- Get to know you activities.
- Some sport and fun activities (please ensure you have a hat / drink bottle and of course, sunscreen).
- A sausage sizzle for Morning Tea and the Tuckshop will be available for lunch or bring some food from home.
- We will walk students from Gympie West SS back to school at 1.30pm and organise buses for other students back to their schools. You will be back at your primary school in time to catch buses home.

To attend this day, you must RSVP to James Nash either emailing or calling the school. Please let us know that you will be attending this Transition Day by 12 November. We need to let your primary schools who will be present on this day.

Email: Courtney Cross at ccros94@eq.edu.au or ring 54806333 to let us know you are coming. If you don't let us know, we will not be organising transport back to school for you.

Invitation to our Orientation Day
Monday 3 December at James Nash
9.30am—2.30pm

Enrolled students are also invited to the James Nash Orientation Day, which is a more formalised day, where students will experience what a day in the life of a high schooler is like. Students will be placed in classes for 2019 and will meet some of their teachers for next year. On this day, students will practise using the Tuckshop and get to know how to read your timetable.

Booklists, School Camp information and information about school uniform requirements will be shared on this day as well.

Some Important Date Claimers:

12 November Please RSVP to let us know if you are coming to the 20 November Transition Morning.
